Call for Applications for CWSS-SCM Graduate Student Awards

MONSANTO CANADA SCHOLARSHIPS IN WEED SCIENCE

Two scholarships will be awarded each year, one to a M.Sc. candidate and one to a Ph.D. candidate. The winners will receive a $2000 scholarship plus travel and hotel expenses, registration fee, and other reasonable expenses for attending the CWSS-SCM annual meeting.

DOW AGROSCIENCES TRAVEL AWARDS

Two awards will be presented each year, one to a M.Sc. candidate and one to a Ph.D. candidate. Each award consists of up to $1000 to enable deserving graduate students to attend the CWSS-SCM annual meeting. Eligible expenses include registration fees, meals, accommodations and transportation.

SYNGENTA TRAVEL AWARDS

Two awards will be presented each year, one to a M.Sc. candidate and one to a Ph.D. candidate. Each award consists of up to $1000 to enable deserving graduate students to attend the CWSS-SCM annual meeting. Eligible expenses include registration fees, meals, accommodations and transportation.

Winners of the Monsanto Scholarships and the Dow AgroSciences and Syngenta Travel Awards will be required to give a 15 minute presentation on their research project during the Graduate Student Presentations session at the CWSS-SCM annual meeting.

OBJECTIVES:

- To recognize academic and research excellence amongst weed science graduate students in Canada.
- To raise the profile of the CWSS-SCM at Canadian universities.
- To enhance the annual conference by encouraging graduate student participation.
- To encourage graduate student membership in the CWSS-SCM.

ELIGIBILITY: Any graduate student member of CWSS-SCM who has completed at least 12 months of graduate studies toward a M.Sc. or Ph.D. in weed science. The thesis project must be on weed management, biocontrol, herbicide chemistry, physiology, efficacy or environmental fate, application technology, weed biology or weed ecology.

TENABLE: At any university in Canada.

CRITERIA: Academic performance at the graduate and undergraduate levels and demonstrated aptitude and experience in conducting graduate level research. Publications, presentations, communication skills and related extension experiences will be considered.

APPLICATION AND ENQUIRIES: Interested students should apply in writing with the following supporting documentation:

1. Cover letter.
2. All university transcripts.
3. Curriculum vitae, which include education, work experience, extra-curricular activities, publications and other scholarships or awards received.
4. Research project outline (2 pages maximum) including an introduction, objectives, preliminary results, conclusions, and significance to weed science and agriculture.
5. Two letters of reference (one must be from the project supervisor) focused on leadership quality and ability to do research.

All applications will be considered for the Monsanto Scholarship, and the Dow AgroSciences and Syngenta Travel Awards.

Submission of Scholarship Applications:

Forward six (6) print copies of the completed application and letters of reference to

Applications must be received by October 8.

Call for Nominations of CWSS-SCM Awards

CWSS-SCM FELLOW

OBJECTIVE: To honour members of CWSS-SCM who have made outstanding contributions to weed science and to the CWSS-SCM throughout their careers.

NOMINATORS must be active members of CWSS-SCM and may nominate only one candidate per year.

ELIGIBILITY OF NOMINEES: Nominees for Fellow must be active members of the CWSS-SCM at the time of their nomination and must have been active members for a total of at least 10 years. Normally, nominees will be in the later stages of their careers. Nominees must have made substantial contributions in more than one of the following areas:

1. Professional responsibilities and publications if applicable in such areas as research, education and/or extension.
2. Educational contributions other than publications.
3. Development or improvement of weed science programs, practices or products.
4. Service to CWSS-SCM.
5. Service to the profession outside of CWSS-SCM.
6. Other professional contributions.

NOMINATION

Preparation - Obtaining the nominee's assistance in compiling information is encouraged and will improve the accuracy and completeness of the documentation. Clearly identifying and evaluating the nominee's contributions to weed science is the most important part of the nomination, because nominations are ranked on this basis. It is the nominator's responsibility to coordinate the nomination and to assure that it is complete and submitted before the deadline. The nomination packet must be complete before sending to the Chair of the Scholarships and Awards Committee.

Format - Organize the nomination as shown in the enclosed outline. Type the nomination, single-spaced on 8.5 x 11- inch format, in 12 point font.

Supporting Letters - The nominator is responsible for soliciting supporting letters from at least 3 but not more than 5 active CWSS-SCM or WSSA members. These letters should be sent to the nominator as a paper copy or in a .pdf format for inclusion in the nomination packet.

Deserving nominees are recommended to the Executive Committee for Fellowship status by the CWSS-SCM Scholarships and Awards Committee. The Executive Committee gives final approval to all Fellowship awards.

In the first two years following implementation of this award, up to four (4) Fellows may be named per year. In subsequent years no more than one active member of CWSS-SCM may be elected to Fellowship in any one year.

FORMAT FOR CWSS-SCM FELLOW NOMINATION

Title. Entitle the document, Nomination of _____ for Election to Fellowship by the CWSS-SCM.

Nominee. Include name, date and place of birth, mailing address (with postal code), telephone and Fax numbers (with area code), and e-mail address (if available).

Nominator. Include your typewritten name and signature, mailing address (with postal code), telephone and Fax numbers (with area code), and e-mail address.

Qualifications of Nominee

1. Degrees received. Give field, date, and institution for each degree.
2. Honours and Awards. Cite Fellow (or similar) recognition by other scientific societies, titles and awards of merit for exceptional contributions within a company or institution, and distinguished lectureships (invited). This item does not refer to meetings attended, junkets, etc.
3. Professional positions held in academia and/or industry. Give years, geographical location, company or institution and clearly state nature of his/her work and responsibility.
4. Where applicable, list refereed publications including books authored and chapters in books in order from earliest to most recent. Give complete title, date, publisher, number of pages.
5. List major technical publications.
6. Major Extension and non-technical publications. Cite major extension publications and major non-technical papers, written and indicate career numbers. (These should be publications that had a major impact on the understanding of weed science by user groups or by the general public). Indicate total number of publications.
7. Educational contributions. List multiple credit courses the candidate has taught in weed science or agriculture and other contributions to teaching such as graduate student supervision.
8. Extension contributions. Cite exceptional and outstanding programs developed to further weed science. Do not include normal program work; this award is for meritorious service.
9. Research contributions. Describe in your own words the specific, original ideas from this nominee's research which has been important to weed science. If the nominee has research responsibilities, for what original research contributions should he/she be honored?
10. List contributions the candidate has made to agriculture in other lands.
11. Professional contributions outside of weed science. List contributions in other scientific fields.
12. List elected offices or major posts held in CWSS-SCM.
13. List elected offices or major posts held in other national and international scientific and industry organizations.

14. Provide a citation of no more than 1 typed (double-spaced, 12 point) suitable for use at the award presentation, assuming a successful nomination.

Evaluation. The Nominator should identify the contributions on which the nomination is based. Explain why the nominee is not only an outstanding professional in his or her organization or region but also a national or international leader with respect to contributions to weed science. Describe particular contributions or accomplishments which qualify the nominee for the award.

Visit the Canadian Weed Science Society website at www.cwss-scm.ca .

CWSS-SCM OUTSTANDING INDUSTRY MEMBER

BACKGROUND: Industry members comprise a significant part of the CWSS-SCM membership. Their contribution has been and will continue to be of great importance to the Society. Their interaction with members from the academic and public sectors is paramount to the well being of the weed science discipline.

OBJECTIVE: To recognize excellent leadership and contributions to weed management in Canada by CWSS-SCM members.

ELIGIBILITY: Members eligible for the award must be active within CWSS-SCM and be employed by private industry or be self-employed at the time of nomination. The nominee must be actively engaged in weed science activities and weed science should have been a major component the nominee's activity and responsibility during his/her career.

NOMINATION: The nominator will complete the nomination document and contact individuals to provide supporting letters. Three supporting letters are required (of which at least two should be from CWSS-SCM members). Supporting letters must be in 12 point font and no longer than two typewritten 8 ½ by 11 pages. The nominator is also responsible for a document, supporting the nominee, which should be limited to 1000 words. The nominator may obtain statistical information and biographical data from the nominee. The nominator is not required to be a member of CWSS-SCM. The nomination will stand for three years. The nominator is encouraged to update support material in the 2nd and 3rd year of nomination. The nomination package must include

Name and address of nominee.

Education.

Work experience.

Processing of Fellow and Meritorious Service Nominations - A complete set of all nomination packages for Fellow and for the Meritorious Service Award will be distributed by the Chair of the Scholarships and Awards Committee to each member of the Scholarships and Awards Committee. Each member evaluates and ranks the nominations and returns their ranking to the Chair. Based upon the rankings and further consultation with the committee, if required, the Chair forwards a recommendation to the CWSS-SCM President and Executive Committee for final approval. The successful nominees will be notified by the President of the Society in the month of November, prior to our annual meeting. The newly elected CWSS-SCM Fellows and those receiving Meritorious Service Awards will be honoured at the annual meeting.
